Design in culture

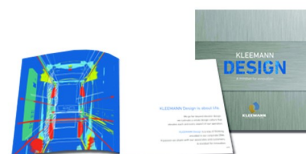

Design in action

At KLEEMANN, design is our mindset and this is what we would like to share with our associates. Modern, in our culture, stands for innovation and flexibility. We offer to you “fresh” solutions, customized on your specific design needs.

With the new KLEEMANN Design & KLEEMANN Cabins brochures and the wide range of materials, textures and colors offered through KLEEMANN Interior materials you may create any possible combination depending on the special features of your project. It is on you to add your imagination and creativity. For more information, click on the icons.
